

India

Colorful markets, sacred traditions, and life along the streets

Armchair Travels with Dr. Ken. A visual storytelling program

Ever dreamed of seeing the Taj Mahal up close?

Can you imagine traveling by camel through the desert?

Did you know that India has national parks whose beauty rivals that of America's wildest places?

These and other discoveries come alive in this India Armchair Adventure Travel presentation, featuring real photographs and true stories from Dr. Ken's time living and working in India.

Some of the topics included in this program:

- What is everyday life like working in an Indian office building
- Wildlife photography safaris in India's protected parks
- Cities more than a thousand years old, filled with history
- The beauty and rhythms of the rural countryside
- Cultural and religious festivals that fill the streets with color
